	Question from	Question asked of	Question	Question to be answered by
1.	Councillor Robert Kemp	Councillor Anthony Hunt, Leader Torfaen Council	As a democratically elected Councillor representing the residents of 'Upper Cwmbraen' ward, I have a MAJOR issue with being 'termed' and 'denoted' as a 'non-aligned' Councillor. As TCBC 'accepts equality' and 'rejects all forms of discrimination', is there still a place for such wording to be used or can the council eradicate its use from within the 'Chamber' and indeed the workplace?	Councillor Richard Clark, Deputy Leader Torfaen Council
2.	Councillor Robert Kemp	Councillor Anthony Hunt, Leader Torfaen Council	"For TCBC to be successful, it needs to be positively challenged through the use of good and thorough governance principles. In order to achieve this, I believe there needs to be an effective opposition in place. As Leader of the Council, do you believe such an effective opposition exists?"	Councillor Richard Clark, Deputy Leader Torfaen Council
3.	Cllr Elizabeth Haynes	Councillor Fiona Cross Executive Member Environment	How many civil parking enforcement penalty charge notices have been issued between 1 st July 2019 and 14 th July 2019 (inclusive) giving a breakdown of the streets & wards they were issued in.	Councillor Fiona Cross Executive Member Environment
4.	Cllr Alan Slade	Councillor David Daniels Executive Member Adult Services and Housing	Would the Executive Member be so kind as to describe the process we follow to encourage rough sleepers back into formal accommodation including a description of what practical measures we are able to offer them to support this process?	Councillor David Daniels Executive Member Adult Services and Housing
5.	Councillor Jason O'Connell	Councillor Anthony Hunt, Leader Torfaen Council	Can the Leader confirm what specific activities he has undertaken in the past month that aids in increasing employment or attracting new businesses to Torfaen	Councillor Richard Clark Deputy Leader Torfaen Council
6.	Councillor Jason O'Connell	Councillor Anthony Hunt, Leader Torfaen Council	Can the Leader confirm what work has been undertaken since the member seminar in May to secure the future of Greenmeadow Farm?	Councillor Richard Clark Deputy Leader Torfaen Council
7.	Councillor David Thomas	Councillor Fiona Cross Executive Member Environment	At the meeting of Safer Communities Scrutiny, the Executive Member explained that the recommendation to implement a computer based system for highways maintenance was not accepted and that a paper based system would remain. How is this decision compatible with the council adopting a greener paperless agenda?	Councillor Fiona Cross Executive Member Environment
